

Lydall Transport

Lydall Transport, Ltd., based in Glen Allen, VA, announces its latest expansion in the truckload, distribution and drayage business with the opening of its Lydall Express operation in Savannah, GA.

Effective April 13, 2009, Lydall Express will operate a full service container drayage operation in and around the Port of Savannah, GA. Mirroring its highly successful container drayage operation in Newport News, VA, Lydall Express will serve the growing import and export trade which has brought the Port of Savannah its reputation as one of the fastest growing ports in North America.
